HUYA Inc. Announces Ex-dividend Date for Recently Announced Cash Dividend

GUANGZHOU, China, March 20, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- HUYA Inc. ("Huya" or the "Company") (NYSE: HUYA), a leading game live streaming platform in China, today announced that the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") has set July 1, 2025 as the ex-dividend date for the Company's cash dividend to be paid in 2025 that was announced on March 18, 2025 as part of the Company's 2025-2027 Dividend Plan. As the cash dividend of US$1.47 per ordinary share, or US$1.47 per American depositary share ("ADS"), exceeds 25% of the Company's ADS price on the announcement date, the NYSE has determined that the ex-dividend date will be July 1, 2025, the first business day following the expected dividend payment date of June 30, 2025.

Accordingly, the NYSE will apply the "due bill" procedures, under which trades of the Company's ADSs entered into before July 1, 2025 and settled on or after the record date of June 17, 2025 (the "due bill period") will include a due bill for the cash dividend. This means that holders who purchase these securities during the due bill period (even if the trades are to be settled after the due bill period) will be entitled to receive the cash dividend. Conversely, sellers who sell the securities during the due bill period (even if the trades are to be settled after the due bill period) will not be entitled to the cash dividend. Investors are also reminded that if they enter into trades to purchase ADSs on or after July 1, 2025, they will not be entitled to the cash dividend announced on March 18, 2025.

Due bills obligate a seller of securities to deliver the dividend payable on such securities to the buyer. The due-bill obligations are settled customarily between the brokers representing buyers and sellers of the securities. Huya has no obligation for either the amount of the due bill or the processing of the due bill. Buyers and sellers of Huya's ADSs should consult their brokers before trading to ensure they understand the effect of the NYSE's due-bill procedures.
